

What is the Free DirectMatches SpiderWeb Marketing Business Blog

I just want to welcome you to my Direct Matches Site article and make myself available to answer any questions you may have about the community and how to fully utilize the advertising and networking potential at your fingertips. There are now a whole LOT more people for us to network with and we can help people earn a living as well! Average people are earning rising incomes here. What else you get with your DirectMatches membership.

With this business it's easy because it's so fun to promote, and you get to meet so many great people along the way. If you have a secondary business as well that you are promoting, you will get additional exposure, and gather more traffic to your site.

There's lots of incredible things you can do at DM. Just take your time and click on all the links. You can use the Classifieds section, the Forum, do a Blog, add Video, do a Presentation, list events in your area, and put in your latest News. You can make new contacts by clicking on My Business Matches and then Add To Contacts, or start a network group by clicking on Networks and then notify your contacts about your new group. Click on Search to find people that interest you, and add them to Contacts. Check your profile for new contact requests every few days. You can do all this from your profile section.

I recommend Upgrading to Manager or Executive to make the most money from Direct Matches! Bring all your friends as well. We love a good crowd! Start inviting everyone you know in for free advertising & training. Compensation Plan and Information About Upgrades. When you upgrade to Executive, and choose to promote DirectMatches, you will make money off of all upgrades, Executives, Managers, and Customers. Make the most money at Executive level!

You can make up to $12000.00 per week. That's a lot of money. If you upgrade to Manager, you will make money off only Manager and Customer upgrades, and can make up to $6000.00 per week. This is outstanding! As soon as you get an upgrade, you get a Personal Sponsorship Bonus of 50% of what that upgrade is.

What most people don't realize is how much money they can make promoting DirectMatches, or what each upgrade can actually do for them. Later when you have sponsored many upgrades, you can cycle many times a day, and this is where it gets really exciting! And I'm not just talking about your upgrades, this includes your members upgrades, as well as spillover from your sponsor, your total downline. We have a binary infinity payplan.

This means that you don't have to have many upgrades yourself to make a lot of money. You will have members building your residual income for you. This is why it is important to help out your members, and to train them properly. You must build relationships with your members, and give them support. It's a win-win situation. This is an incredible home based business opportunity for you!
